Is DE LIVINGSTONE ALIVE? -- Whether Dr. Livingstone is alive or dead is not yet satisfactorily settled. Once more hope is in the ascendant, The Cape of Good Hope mail, recently arrived in Rogland, brings a letter, in which Mr. J. S. Moffatt, a missionary, expresses a strong hope that his distinguished relative Dr. Livingstone, is still alive. A report, says Mr. Monart, b has, been received at Zanzibar, of Lavingstone's passage through a district "more remote then the place where he was said to have been killed." He thinks that the Malay who hid returned and reported Dr. Livingstone

Madame Stuart, nee Grenuchette, who had a great reputation of a ballet dancer in France during the reign of Marie Antoinette, died recently in Toledo at the age of 111 years. She came to this country as the mistress of the Marquis de Lafayette, and afterwards became the Simpson. He died in 1783, and she afterwards worled a Virginia lawyer named Rodolphe Stuart, who left her a widow in 1812, with a modest fortune and eleven children. At the time of the death, her descendants numbered over a hundred.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE

OF VALUABLE LAND, IN KING GEORGE COUNTY, VA. By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of King George county, pronounced in the suit of Quisenberry's Administratrix vs. Quisenberry and others, the subscribers, therein appointed Special Commissioners for that purpose will expose to public sale, on THURSDAY, the 5th day of December, 1867, (that being Court day) at King George C. H., the tract of land, in the decree and proceedings mentioned, called "THE COTTAGE."

"The Cottage" contains 724 acres. It is beautifully located in King George county, on Machodoc Creek, near its entrance into the Potomac river, and is bounded on two sides by that creek and Williams' creek. The landing on the farm is accessible to steamers and sail vessels of a large class, offering the greatest facili-ties for delivering grain or wood. The improvements consist of a small but comfortable Frame Dwelling House, good Barns, Stables, Corn Houses, Servant's Houses, Ice House, pump, &c. The farm is in fine condition, the land level, well adapted to the production of corn, wheat, grass, &c., and is justly considered the most desirable real estate in that portion of the county. It is well enclosed with good and substantial fencing, and the several fields also separated by good fences. There is a plenty of water, and timber in abundance for the use of the plantation. It is, altogether, a most desir able tract of land, for all agricultural purposes. sale, carrying interest from the day of sale, and will desire to purchase homesteads of that size the deferred payments to be secured, after the and quantity.
